

GOING UP CAMPAIGN RULES

The Going Up Campaign will be hosted on a national scale at multiple shopping centres. The campaign is open to all members of the communities living in the vicinity of those centres who are interested in applying for free youth and adult development training/workshops.

- The training modules have been pre-selected in consultation with the Property Management team and local forum representing the community.
- The campaign will run from August 2022 to March 2023, and the training dates will be communicated directly to participants who's applications were successful.
- Applications need to be handed back to the Centre Manager office after completion and submitted within the cut off dates.
- All interested candidates must go through the formal application process. No individuals will be granted favoured permission or selected by reference of any kind.
- The application process will include the following basic requirements/criteria:
 - Matric certificate.
 - SA identity document.
 - Candidates must be aged 18 to 33 years. (for the youth development workshops)
 - It is advisable that candidates reside within one taxi drive or 20km from the centre.
 - Candidates must be able to attend 5 consecutive days of training.
 - Centre Management, the organisers and the local community forum will be involved in the application and approval process.
- Training will be provided free of charge but does not include any employment opportunity thereafter.
- Training classes will accommodate 20 people per session.
- Transport, meals, and any personal costs are not included and will be for the trainees' account.
- We will contact the selected candidate for 2 or 3 days and should we not be able to get hold of them their spot will be given to someone else.
- Only candidates that complete the course will receive a certificate
- Should the desired number of entries not be achieved an extension will be created on the cut-off dates of applications and communicated on centre platforms.
